● 杉本錬堂 (Rendo Sugimoto)

Master Rendo Sugimoto resides in the city of Izu-Kogan, located on the Izu Peninsula on the Japanese Island of Honshu. The Izu Peninsula, (once a volcanic island itself), has some of the most beautiful coastal scenery in the world and, due to its proximity to many of Japan's most active volcanoes, has countless hot springs. Along the peninsula is the Amagi mountain range. It is here that Sugimoto Sensei ("Teacher") developed the Amagi Thermal Therapy. "Amagi" means "mountains that reach to the heavens" and is based on "Gyoja" , a form of Japanese shamanism that combined with Buddhism in the 7th century. His technique combines this knowledge of healing through the powers of Nature together with other elements discovered during his own healing experiences. Being gravely ill many years ago, physicians using conventional medicine had been unable to bring him back to a reasonable state of health. Sugimoto Sensei realized that he, himself, had to take the responsibility for his health if he was to survive. It was through this inspiring personal journey of healing that Amagi Thermal Therapy was born.
